RE: BORDER

Dear Mr. Burgard,

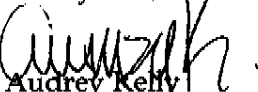

Thank you for inviting me to the screening of your new documentary, Border. Although a heated topic on the news these days, I had no idea what to expect.

What I walked away with was a better understanding of not only how important this issue is to the welfare and security of our country, but also just how dire this situation really has become.

And that's why your film is so important. You've captured a sense of time and place that this country has found itself in and you've presented it in such a compelling way. In fact, my associate and I spent hours debating the issue after the screening.

That said, I look forward to seeing it again in theatres. And please keep in touch. I would love to do something in an upcoming issue to help promote the film... a film that should be required viewing.

All my best,

Audrey Kelly
